

Georgia Rabun County

We whose names are hereto subscribed agree to pay the amount subscribed to our respective names to a building Committee here after to be appointed for the purpose of building a Masonic Lodge in Clayton in said County on such plans as the lodge at this place may agree upon and at such times as the said Committee may demand it. The amount subscribed is to be paid in money or in work done or in material furnished in such sums or quantities and prices that may be agreed upon by the subscriber and the Committee. In case they cannot agree upon the prices or the Committee does not want the work or the material then the subscriber pays the same in currency. When the same is paid the person paying is entitled to take a certificate of the amount so paid signed by the Committee upon which the lodge is to give him an order for said amount stating what the same is for, on the Treasury not negotiable only to a Master Mason of this same lodge. The same to be paid proportionally with all other orders of the same nature without regard to date, out of any funds that the lodge may order to be paid out for that purpose but in no wise to have any lien upon the lodge building or other property of the lodge but only to be paid as the lodge orders a fund to be appropriated for that purpose.
